

Early Access Privacy Policy

Last Updated: 21/08/2026

Oculus Lab ("Oculus Lab," "we," "us," or "our") respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information you provide to us.

This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, and protect your information when you visit the Oculus Lab website or register for the Oculus Lab Early Access Program.

By submitting your information to Oculus Lab, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this Privacy Policy.

1. Information We Collect

Information You Provide

When you register for Early Access, we may collect:

- Email address - used to confirm your registration and communicate with you about Oculus Lab.
- Any additional information you voluntarily provide through forms, surveys, or other communications.

We do not currently require you to provide payment information, financial account information, trading account credentials, or other sensitive financial information to register for Early Access.

Information Collected Automatically

When you visit the Oculus Lab website, certain technical information may be collected automatically, depending on the tools and services used on the website. This may include:

- IP address;
- Browser type and version;
- Device type;
- Operating system;
- Pages visited;
- Referring website or source; and
- General usage and interaction information.

This information may be collected through cookies, analytics tools, or similar technologies.

2. How We Use Your Information

We may use the information we collect to:

- Process and manage your Early Access registration;
- Send confirmation emails and Early Access invitations;
- Provide product updates, announcements, and launch information;
- Invite you to participate in product testing, surveys, or feedback programs;
- Improve the Oculus Lab website, product, and user experience;
- Monitor website performance and security;
- Detect, prevent, and address technical issues or misuse; and
- Comply with applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

We will not use your email address for unrelated purposes without an appropriate legal basis or your consent where required by applicable law.

3. Early Access Communications

By registering for Oculus Lab Early Access, you agree to receive communications related to the Early Access Program and the development or launch of Oculus Lab.

These communications may include:

- Registration confirmations;
- Early Access invitations;
- Product updates;
- Feature announcements;
- Testing opportunities;
- Surveys and feedback requests; and
- Important service or program-related notices.

You may unsubscribe from non-essential marketing communications at any time by following the unsubscribe instructions included in the relevant email.

Please note that certain essential communications related to your Early Access registration or the service may still be sent where necessary.

4. Cookies and Analytics

Oculus Lab may use cookies and similar technologies to operate, secure, and improve the website.

We may also use third-party analytics services to understand how visitors interact with our website, such as which pages are visited and how users navigate the site.

These technologies may collect information such as device information, browser information, approximate location, and website activity.

You may be able to manage or disable cookies through your browser settings. Disabling certain cookies may affect some website functionality.

5. How We Share Your Information

We do not sell or rent your personal information.

We may share limited information with trusted service providers that help us operate the website, manage email communications, analyze usage, or maintain security.

We may also disclose information when required by applicable law.

6. Data Retention & Security

We retain your information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy or as required by law.

We use reasonable measures to protect your information, although no online system can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

7. Your Privacy Rights

Depending on your location and applicable law, you may have certain rights regarding your personal information, including the right to:

- Request access to the personal information we hold about you;
- Request correction of inaccurate or incomplete information;
- Request deletion of your personal information;
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent;
- Object to or restrict certain processing activities; and
- Request a copy of your personal information in certain circumstances.

To exercise applicable privacy rights, please contact us using the contact information provided below.

We may need to verify your identity before processing certain requests.

8. Changes to This Privacy Policy

As Oculus Lab develops, we may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes to our practices, technologies, services, or applicable legal requirements.
