

Early Access Terms and Conditions

Last Updated: 21/08/2026

These Early Access Terms & Conditions ("Terms") govern your participation in the Oculus Lab Early Access Program ("Early Access").

By submitting your email address to join the Early Access Program, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to these Terms. If you do not agree with these Terms, please do not submit your email address or participate in the Early Access Program.

1. Early Access Program

Oculus Lab is currently in an Early Access / pre-launch stage. The Early Access Program allows interested users to register their interest and receive updates, invitations, and information related to the development and launch of Oculus Lab.

2. Description of Oculus Lab

Oculus Lab is an AI-powered forecasting agent built for prediction markets. It provides probability estimates, evidence-based reasoning, and news analysis to help users research market outcomes.

Oculus Lab is intended to provide probabilistic estimates, evidence-based reasoning, market information, and relevant news analysis to support users in conducting independent research.

3. Not Financial Advice

- Analysis Only: Oculus Lab provides probabilistic market analysis for informational purposes only.
- No Guarantees: Forecasts are estimates and are not guarantees of future outcomes.
- User Responsibility: Any decision to participate in a prediction market, make an investment, trade an asset, or take any other action based on information obtained from Oculus Lab is solely your responsibility.

4. Operational Boundaries

Oculus Lab is an analysis-only platform.

Oculus Lab does not:

- Accept, place, or settle bets on behalf of users;
- Hold, custody, or manage user funds or assets;
- Execute trades or transactions on behalf of users;
- Act as a broker, exchange, prediction market operator, or transaction intermediary; or
- Provide personalized financial or investment advice.

Any interaction with third-party prediction markets, exchanges, or other platforms is conducted independently by the user and is subject to the terms and requirements of those third parties.

5. Early Access Registration

At the Early Access stage, users may be asked to provide their email address to register their interest in Oculus Lab.

By submitting your email address, you agree that it may be used to:

- Confirm your Early Access registration;
- Send Early Access and product-related updates;
- Notify you about product availability, testing opportunities, or launch updates; and
- Communicate other information reasonably related to Oculus Lab.

Submitting your email address does not create a paid subscription, guarantee product access, or create an obligation to purchase any future service.

6. Accuracy and Data

While we strive for accuracy, the information provided is based on third-party news and market data. Oculus Lab is not liable for errors, omissions, or delays in data or for any actions taken in reliance on the information provided.

7. Prohibited Use

You agree not to use Oculus Lab or information obtained through the service:

- For any unlawful or fraudulent purpose;
- To circumvent applicable laws, regulations, sanctions, or jurisdictional restrictions;

- To interfere with or disrupt the operation or security of the platform;
- To attempt to gain unauthorized access to the platform, systems, or data; or
- In any manner that violates applicable laws or regulations.

You are solely responsible for determining whether your use of Oculus Lab is permitted in your jurisdiction.

8. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Oculus Lab shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, or consequential losses resulting from your use of the service or reliance on our forecasts.

9. Changes to Terms

These Terms may be updated or modified from time to time as Oculus Lab develops.

Updated Terms will be made available through the Oculus Lab website or other appropriate communication channels.
